Dear Client,

Consultum awards Anthony D'Alessandro – Adviser of the Year 2016

I am writing to you as the CEO of Consultum Financial Advisers (Consultum) to let you know of a recent award your adviser Anthony D'Alessandro of Required Financial Services has received.

Anthony was judged as Adviser of the Year by Consultum Financial Advisers which considered a number of aspects of his contribution to the overall Consultum network, including going the extra mile in providing financial advisory services to his clients.

Each year we assess professional standards, practice development, feedback from colleagues and the contribution made by the individual to their local and wider community, as well as the industry. For these reasons, the award is one of the highest honours Consultum can bestow on one of its advisers.

Anthony has been a loyal member of the Consultum advisory network since 2013 and is an active participant in the development of the Consultum network. Anthony is a dedicated adviser who demonstrates an uncompromising client focus. With the support of his qualified team at Required Financial Services, Anthony is committed to building and maintaining long term relationships with his clients.

I congratulate Anthony on his award and wish you continued success in your financial planning journey with the support of Anthony and his team.

Yours sincerely,

Joe Botte
